

Joint Admission Agreement between Northampton Community College And Carlow University for RN to BSN

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to outline the process for a Joint Admission program between Northampton Community College (NCC) and Carlow University (CU). This agreement pertains to the joint admission of students into the Associate of Science Degree in Nursing at NCC and the RN to BSN program at CU and to students who decide to jointly enroll while completing their ADN degree.

NCC and CU stipulate that upon admission to the Associate of Science Degree in nursing at NCC, students may simultaneously be admitted into the RN to BSN program (or BSN) at CU. These students are guaranteed admission and will seamlessly enter into the RN to BSN program at CU, provided they have completed their Associate of Science Degree in nursing with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and have successfully passed the NCLEX exam, and having obtained a Professional Registered Nursing License prior to beginning the RN-BSN nursing courses in the Carlow program. In addition, students must comply with the procedure outlined below.

Procedure

To be eligible for the Joint Admission Program, students must complete the joint admission application form provided by NCC.

The Joint Admission Program is open to:

1. Applicants to NCC who are first-time, matriculated freshmen, or
2. Returning adult students to NCC, or
3. Transfer students to NCC
4. Any currently matriculated NCC student who applies to the Joint Admissions Program prior to completion of the NCC nursing (ADN) program
5. All students must meet CU's admission requirements and CU's RN to BSN admission requirements as stated in the CU catalog and must meet all other admission and eligibility requirements. CU has sole discretion in admissions decisions.

Stipulations

NCC and CU agree jointly to provide the following:

1. Each institution will provide a main contact point for the Joint Admission Program. This will work through the Advising and Transfer Services Office at NCC and the Office of Admissions at Carlow.
2. NCC and CU will develop cooperatively, publications pertaining to the joint admission program.

CU agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at NCC who apply for Joint Admissions:

1. CU agrees to waive the application fee for all students who apply for Joint Admission to CU pursuant to the provisions of this agreement.
2. CU representatives will meet at NCC with students in the Joint Admission Program. The purpose of these meetings will be to provide academic advice about CU's curriculum and general information about CU.
3. CU will outline for NCC students the potential for earning a Master of Science in Nursing in an accelerated format with up to 12 graduate credits being earned while in Carlow's undergraduate RN-BSN program.
4. NCC students will be permitted to enroll in one CU class before completing their AS degree charged at the NCC tuition rate.
5. CU agrees to provide, as needed, information sessions with faculty and staff of NCC who will be involved in consulting and advising students enrolled in the Joint Admission Program.
6. The CU Transfer Guide for NCC students will be periodically updated. The guide will outline course equivalencies for required and recommended courses.
7. The Transfer Guide will be made accessible to all students on the CU website.
8. CU will report to NCC who has matriculated into the RN to BSN program upon graduation from NCC. CU will also provide NCC with a verified listing of all those who have graduated from CU as a result of this partnership.

NCC agrees to provide the following for Associate of Science in Nursing Degree candidates at NCC who apply for Joint Admission:

1. NCC will provide the necessary applications for students who want to apply for joint admission to NCC and CU.
2. NCC will be responsible for selection of candidates to the Joint Admissions Program. Applications; candidates will be evaluated according to the basic criteria in effect at NCC and CU for the Joint Admissions Program.

3. By September 15 and February 15 of each year, NCC will provide CU with a list of all students participating in the Joint Admissions Program. Also at this time, NCC will provide a list of the Joint Admissions students scheduled to graduate at the end of each semester who have indicated their intent to attend CU the following semester along with copies of their transcripts to ensure that Carlow RN-BSN Program admission standards have been met.
4. By July 1 (for fall enrollees) and February 15 (for spring enrollees) NCC will send CU official proof of receipt of the Associate's Degree for Joint Admission students and final transcripts.
5. NCC will assist in setting up advisement programs involving CU faculty and staff.

Articulation for Transfer Students Not Participating in Joint Admission:

Procedures outlined herein relate specifically to students who do not simultaneously apply to NCC and CU. Some students who apply to NCC have not yet decided on their transfer destination, but during the course of study at NCC may decide to transfer to CU.

NCC and CU agree to facilitate transfer to CU of NCC graduates not covered by this agreement by making available to them the same academic advisement and consultation made available to Joint Admission students. It is understood, however, that students not covered by the Joint Admission agreement must apply and meet the admission standards of CU.

Terms and Conditions

- A. Term of the Agreement. This agreement is intended to be in effect for five (5) years from the date of signature. It will be reviewed annually.
- B. Termination of the Agreement. Northampton Community College or Carlow University may terminate this agreement for any reason or without reason with ninety (90) days written notice from either party.
- C. Nondiscrimination. The parties agree to continue their respective policies of nondiscrimination based on sex, age, race, color, creed, national origin, disability and any other category protected by federal, state, and/or local law.
- D. Relationship of Parties. The relationship between the parties to this Agreement to each other is that of independent contractors. The relationship of the parties to this contract to each other shall not be construed to constitute a partnership, joint venture or any other relationship, other than that of independent contractors.
- E. Modification of Agreement. This agreement shall be modified only in writing, with the signed authorization of NCC and Carlow University.
- F. Promotion of Agreement. Both parties have the right to use this agreement and the name of Northampton Community College in all promotional activities, including college catalogs and recruitment or advisement activities.

- G. Liability. Neither of the parties shall assume any liabilities of the other. As to liability to each other or death to persons or damages to property, the parties do not waive any defense as a result of entering into this agreement.
- H. Entire Agreement. This agreement represents the entire understanding between the parties. No other prior or contemporaneous oral or written understandings or promises exist in regard to this relationship. Any changes, corrections or additions to this agreement shall be in writing in the form of a supplemental agreement signed by all appropriate parties and setting forth therein the proposed change, correction or addition. This agreement between NCC and CU does not affect any other agreements between NCC and CU.

For: Northampton Community College

For: Carlow University

Mark Erickson, Ed.D.
President

Suzanne K. Mellon, Ph.D.
President

7/09/2018

Date

11/13/18

Date